

I am concerned about Sinclair's decision to use the public airwaves for their own interests rather than using them to serve the public good. I fear for our democracy if this type of control is not curbed. Thank you for protecting our public airwaves.